

COLLEGE for Creative STUDIES: Presentation for Probationary Approval

Presentation to the Michigan State Board of Education
April 8, 2014

Leah Breen, Assistant Director
Office of Professional Preparation Services

Joseph Martineau, Ph.D.
Deputy Superintendent for Accountability Services

College for Creative Studies

- Located in midtown, Detroit
- Enrolls 1,400 students

Two campuses

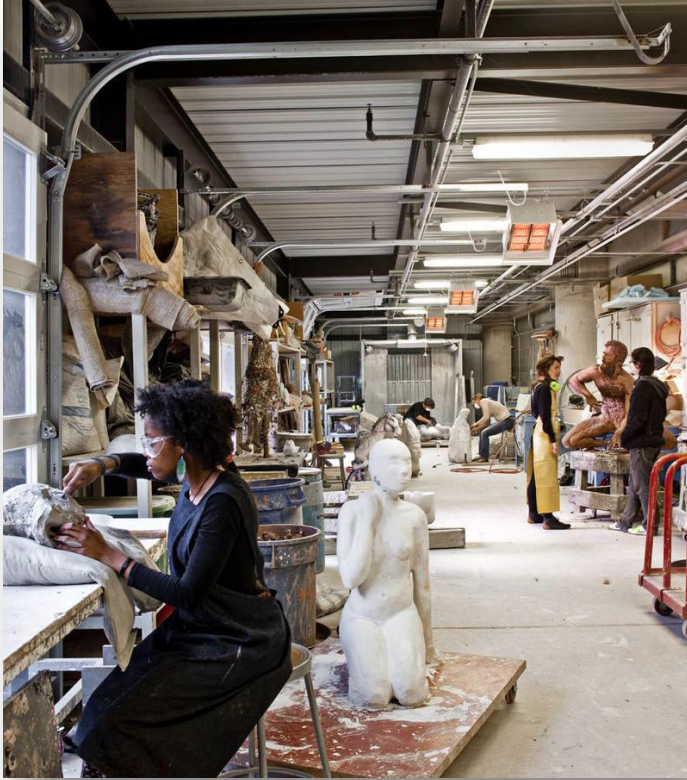

Walter and Josephine Ford Campus

Alfred Taubman Center for Design Education

College for Creative Studies

Provide students with tools needed for careers in the dynamic creative industries

College for Creative Studies

Art Education

- Lab School
 - Close relationship with Henry Ford Academy:
School for Creative Studies
- Dual major
 - Requires major area of study in art field, in addition to visual arts education requirements
- Interdisciplinary approach to arts education

State Board of Education

Educator Preparation Institution Approval Process

Probationary Approval Entails

- SBE extension of approval for three years
- Financial and program independence from mentor institution
- Demonstration of continued success and improvement of programs
- Meet and respond to CoS' questions and conditions

Recommendation for Probationary Approval

The State Superintendent intends to recommend the College for Creative Studies for preliminary approval as an educator preparation institution in May 2014.